

June 28, 2012

Barbara Tfank Resort 2013

Barbara Tfank likes to make clothes for women who are more interested in being superchic than super on-trend. Thus with echoes of Grace Kelly and Jackie Kennedy, her classic dresses for resort were about impeccable workmanship, simple shapes and beautiful fabrics. Her signature off-the-shoulder sheaths, empire dresses and fit-and-flare frocks looked terrific in what the designer called a "Northern Lights-inspired" palette of vibrant green, pink, turquoise and citrus solids, along with butterfly and floral prints on polished cottons and silks.

<http://www.wwd.com/runway/resort-2013/review/barbara-tfank>